

Kolehmainen Will Compete Unattached in Title Run

FLYING FINN QUILTS WINGED FIST CLUB

Kolehmainen Enters Unattached in Ten Mile National Championship Run.

MAY JOHN KALEVA A. C.

By GEORGE B. UNDERWOOD.

When Hannes Kolehmainen, the Finnish Flyer, answers the call to post in the race for the ten mile championship of the United States at Macombs Dam Park, next Saturday, the familiar Winged Fist emblem of the Irish American A. C., which he has carried to many sensational victories, will be missing from his jersey.

It will be a plain white running shirt which the holder of many American distance running records will sport, for though he intends competing for the Kaleva A. C. of Brooklyn in the future, the eligibility rules prohibit his representing any club for a period of twelve months. During that time the little Finnish vegetarian must run unattached.

The news of Kolehmainen's desertion from the Conway Club came up when Hannes turned in his ten mile championship entry at A. A. U. headquarters yesterday afternoon. He entered himself as "unattached." He stated his reasons for withdrawing from the Winged Fists yesterday.

Surprise to Conway.

When Patrick J. Conway, president of the Irish American A. C., was asked about the matter last night the Winged Fist chieftain said it was the first thing he had heard about it. He said Kolehmainen had not turned in his resignation nor had he estimated he was going to do so at any of the officials of the Irish American A. C.

It will be remembered that Willie Kolehmainen, the Finnish countryman, recently resigned from the Millrose A. C. and entered a race as unattached. Late yesterday changes in wind and wave back into the Millrose fold. Perhaps Kolehmainen will reconsider the matter and jump back to the Winged Fists.

While Kolehmainen yesterday would give no definite reason for "jumping" the Irish American A. C., he thinks it is from the fact Lasse Robertson, who is vacationing with the Winged Fists to gain the University of Pennsylvania, Kolehmainen's countrymen have repeatedly urged him to represent the Kaleva A. C. a disinctively Finnish organization. In refusing to run for the Finnish club Kolehmainen also gave his reason, that he had agreed to run with the Irish American A. C. in order to get a seat on Lasson Robertson's training and advice. With Robertson gone from the Irish American A. C. Hannes had no good reason for refusing to represent the Kaleva A. C., whose members are our own countrymen.

Robbie Ordered a Rest.

Though Robertson is training the track and field athletes at Pennsylvania, he has not severed his connection with the Irish American A. C. and will train the Winged Fists next summer when college is closed. Lawson still keeps in touch with affairs here, and has recently ordered Kolehmainen to run on a run-and-jump course for four months.

Lawson was of the opinion that a long rest is what Hannes needs, and that without it the Flying Finn never will regain his old time form.

Willie Kolehmainen, the professional distance champion and older brother of Hannes, is one of the most experienced runners in the world. He was on the Winged Fist team for the ten mile championship. Hannes started training for the ten mile championship. Perhaps it is Willie who has induced Hannes to cut loose from Robertson and the Irish American A. C.

Kolehmainen, who was the greatest in individual point-scoring in the Olympic Games in 1912, winning the 1,500 and 10,000 meter runs and the 1,600 meter cross-country race, joined the Irish American A. C. upon his arrival in this country in the fall of that year. Since then he has carried the Winged Fist to victory in six national and four metropolitan championships. In 1913, when the Chinese Kolehmainen smashed all American outdoor records from two and a half miles to ten miles and all American indoor marks from five miles to ten miles.

The Entrants.

The seven mile national championship walk will be staged at Macombs Dam Park on Saturday, as well as the race for the ten mile national running title. The entrants for the two championship events follow:

Ten Mile Run—James W. Plant, Long Island A. C.; Nick Giannopoulos, Willie Kyroen, and Charles Pores, Millrose A. C.; Louis Schmidt, Bronx Church House, James Henigan, Dorchester Club, Marden, Mass.; Aaron G. Price, St. Christopher's, N. Y.; Harry Portlock, T. A. Nichols, and Van Vorst, Morrisania A. C.; Lester P. Dutka, Hungarian-American A. C.; Joseph S. Carr, Mercury A. C.; James A. McCurnin, Jersey Harriers; Frederick Travaleans, Mohawk A. C.; W. J. Kennedy, unattached, and Jim Schuster, Swedish-American A. C.; Eddie W. Richardson, P. Remer, Joe Pramian, and W. J. McFadden, New York A. C.; Frank P. Kiser, Morrisania A. C.; S. G. A. C. Ulrich, American Walkers Association; James J. Farrell, Eugene Grunberg, and Alexander Joss, unattached; William Plant and Otto A. Braumlich, Long Island A. C.; J. L. Johnson, Casting A. C., and William J. Reiter, Irish-American A. C.

INELIGIBLE PLAYER COSTS
EVANDER CHILDS A CONTEST

Emanuel Haus, chairman of the Del who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.

De Witt Clinton this year is represented by one of the strongest soccer teams in the history of the school. From last year's eleven, which finished with a percentage of .537, it has, Capt. Fitzpatrick, Perrotti, Sawyer and Santa Anna, all around star. In addition, the team's veterans, John H. Hallinan, has purchased two of last year's stars in Morehead and Bonaparte. A second team has also been formed at Clinton, and games are being sought with other junior elevens in the city.

Wenck, manager of the Del, who will compete in the big tournament, with Clinton High School athletic committee, yesterday was notified that the former football team will disband as a result of last Saturday's defeat by Stuyvesant. Notwithstanding the unexpected reversal, Coach Siskind's charges practiced yesterday with renewed interest and plan to average themselves next Saturday, when they meet with the cohorts of Flushing High on the Long Island school's gridiron. More than thirty boys were and are present, the bulk of the Del's former street schoolers having dropped out of their work with vigor. While disappointed at the result of Saturday's game, Dr. Dresler, faculty athletic adviser of Commerce, has no fault to find with the quality of the team's play. The boys gave forth their best ability, but were outclassed. At Commerce the old cry of "walk till next year" now is the password.